

BYLAWS OF THE COUNCIL OF CO-OWNERS OF
FREEMAN GREEN

The following bylaws shall apply to the above-named condominium project (herein called the “Project”), located in Elizabethtown, Hardin County, Kentucky as described in and created by Master Deed and Declaration of Condominium Property Regime (herein called the “Declaration”) recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Hardin County, Kentucky at Elizabethtown, and to all present and future owners, tenants and occupants of any unit of the Project and all other persons who shall at any time use the Project.

ARTICLE I

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Qualification. All owners of the units of the Project shall constitute the Council of Co-Owners, herein called “Council”. The owner of any unit upon acquiring title thereto shall automatically become a member of the Council and shall remain a member thereof until such time as his ownership of such unit ceases for any reason, at which time his membership in the Council shall automatically cease.

Voting shall be on a percentage of common interest basis as expressed in Section 7 thereof.

Section 2. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Council shall be held in the Project or such other suitable place convenient to the unit owners as may be designated by the Board of Administration.

Section 3. Annual Meetings. Annual meetings of the Council shall be held on the last Monday of September of each year at a time set by the Board of Administration. The first such meeting for unit owners shall occur following surrender by the developer of control of the Council and Board of Administration as provided by the aforesaid Declaration.

Section 4. Special Meetings. Special Meetings of the Council may be held at any time upon the call of the President, or a petition signed by at least twenty five percent (25%) of the unit owners and presented to the Secretary following surrender of Developer's control.

Section 5. Notice of Meetings. The Secretary shall give written or printed notice of each annual and special meeting to every unit owner according to the Council's record of ownership at least five days before the date set for such meeting, stating whether it is an annual or a special meeting, the authority for the call thereof, in any of the following ways: (a) by delivering it to him personally, or (b) by leaving it at his unit in the Project or at his residence or usual place of business, or (c) by mailing it, postage prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it appears on the Council's record of ownership. If notice is given pursuant to the provisions in this, the failure of any unit owner to receive actual notice of any meeting shall in no way invalidate such meeting or any actions taken. The presence of any unit owner in person or by proxy at any meeting shall be deemed a waiver of any required notice to such owner unless he shall be at the opening thereof object to the holding of such meeting because of the failure to give notice in accordance with the provisions hereof.

Section 6. Quorum. The presence at any meeting in person or by proxy of a majority of the unit owners shall constitute a quorum, and the acts of a majority of the unit owners present, shall be the acts of the Council except as otherwise provided herein. The term, “majority of unit owners” in these bylaws means the owners of units to which are appurtenant such percentage of the common interests.

Section 7. Voting. Voting shall be on a percentage basis, and the percentage of the total vote to which each unit is entitled shall be the percentage of common interests assigned to such unit in the declaration. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy by the respective unit owners as shown in the record of ownership of the Council. An executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee may vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of the Council the percentage of vote for any unit owned or controlled by him in such capacity, whether or not the same shall have been transferred to his name in the Council’s record of ownership, provided that he shall first present evidence satisfactory to the Secretary that he owns or controls such unit in such capacity.

Section 8. Proxies and Pledges. The authority given by any unit owner to another person to represent him at meetings of the Council shall be in writing, signed by such owner and filed with the Secretary, and unless limited by its terms shall continue until revoked by writing filed with the Secretary or by the death or incapacity of such owner. Voting rights transferred or pledged by mortgage, deed of trust or agreement of sale or lease of any unit or interest therein, a true copy of which is filed with the Board through the Secretary, Administrator, or Managing Agent, should be exercised only by the person designated in such instrument until the written release or other termination thereof is filed with the Board in like manner.

Section 9. Adjournment. Any meeting of the Council may be adjourned from time to time to such place and time as may be determined by a majority vote of the unit owners present, without notice other than the announcement at such meeting. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted by a quorum at the meeting as originally called.

Article II

Board of Administration

Section 1. Number and Qualifications. The affairs of the Council and the project shall be governed by a Board of Administration composed of at least three and no more than five persons at the discretion of the Council of co-owners, none of whom need own any interest in any unit. The board members shall serve without compensation unless otherwise authorized by the council of co-owners.

Section 2. Powers. The Board of Administration shall have all powers necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Council and may do all such acts and things as are not by law, the Declaration or these bylaws directed to be exercised or done only by the unit owners.

Section 3. Election and Term. Elections of Board members shall be by cumulative voting by secret ballot each Annual Meeting and any special meeting called for this purpose. Section 4. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Administration caused by any reason other than removal of a member by the Council shall be filled by vote of a majority of the remaining members, even though they may constitute less than a quorum, and each person so elected shall be a member until his successor is elected at the next annual meeting of the council. Death, incapacity or resignation of any board member, or his continuance absence from the State of Kentucky for more than six months, shall cause his office to become vacant.

Section 5. Removal of Board Members. At any regular or special meeting of the Council duly called, any one or more of the Board Members may be removed with or without cause by vote of a majority of unit owners and a successor may then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thus created. Any Board Member whose removal has been proposed by the unit owners shall be given an opportunity to be heard at such meeting.

Section 6. Annual Meeting. An organizational meeting of the Board of Administration shall be held at the place of agreement immediately following each annual meeting of the Council, and notice shall be necessary to any board members in order to validly constitute such meeting, provided that a majority of the whole board shall be present. At such meeting the board shall elect officers of the council for the ensuing year.

Section 7. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Administration may be held at such time by a majority of the board members, but at least one meeting shall be held each calendar quarter of every year. Notice of regular meetings of board shall be given to each board member, personally or by mail, telephone, or telegraph, at least one day prior to the date of such meeting.

Section 8. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Administration may be called by the President on as little as eight hours notice to each board member, given personally or by telephone or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the board shall be called by the President or the Secretary in like manner and with like notice on the written request of at least two board members.

Section 9. Waiver of Notice. Before or at any meeting of the Board of Administration any board member may in writing give notice of such meeting and, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a board member at any meeting of the board shall be waiver of notice to him of such meeting. If all the board members are present at any meeting of the board, no notice thereof shall be required, and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

Section 10. Quorum of Board. At all meetings of the Board of Administration a majority of the total number of members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the acts of the majority present at any meeting at which quorum is present shall be the acts of the board. If less than a quorum shall be present at any meeting of the board, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called may be transacted without further notice.

Section 11. Fidelity Bonds. The Board of Administrations and such other officers as in its judgement may be necessary. may require that all officers, employees, and agents of the Council handling or responsible for its funds, shall furnish adequate fidelity bonds. The premium on such bonds shall be paid by the council.

Article III

Section 7. Mortgages. Any unit owner who mortgages his unit, or any interest therein, shall notify the Board of Administration of the name and address of his mortgage, and also of the release of such mortgage, and the Secretary shall maintain all such information in the Record of Ownership of the Council. The Board of Administration or Managing Agent at the request of any mortgage or prospective purchaser of any unit, or interest therein, shall report to such person the amount of any assessments against such unit then due and unpaid.

Article VI

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Amendment. These bylaws may be amended in any respect not inconsistent with provisions of law or the Declaration by a vote of sixty percent (60%) of the unit owners (as defined in the Declaration) at any meeting of the Council duly called for such purpose.

Section 2. Indemnification. The Council shall indemnify every Board member and officer, and his executors and administrators, against all expenses reasonable incurred by or imposed on him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made party by reason or having been a Board member or officer of the Council, except in respect to matters as to which he shall be finally judged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for fraud or bad faith in his conduct; and in the absence of such final adjudication, indemnification shall be provided only in connection with such matters as to which the Council is advised by its legal counsel that the person to be indemnified committed no such breach of duty. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled.

Section 3. Interpretation. In case any provision of these bylaws shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not render invalid any other provision hereof which can be given effect. Nothing in these bylaws shall be deemed or construed to authorize the Council or Board of Administration to conduct or engage in any active business for profit on behalf of any or all of the unit owners.

Section 4. Incorporation. In the event the Council of Co-owners chooses to incorporate as permitted in the Declaration, these bylaws these bylaws shall become the bylaws of the corporation.

Section 5. Inter-Council Association. By action of the Board of Administration, the council of co-owners may participate in and contract with any inter-council association of condominium regimes that may be created in the future in the surrounding community, organized for the purpose of efficiency and economy in the operation and maintenance of the condominium regimes participating therein.

Section 6. Enforcement. Violation of the provisions of the Declaration, these bylaws or any Project rules may be remedied in any court of law or equity having jurisdiction thereof by the Council of Co-Owners, its Board of Administration, or managing agent or administrator, or any unit owner or owners entitled to relief with the remedies available to such person or persons including damages, restraining order, injunction, accounting, lien enforcement and specific performance, or any combination thereof.

Section 7. Developer's Rights. During this period of control of the Project by the Developer, as provided in the Declaration, bylaws and Project rules as set out immediately above and in Article V, Section 5, of these bylaws.

Certificate of Adoption

The undersigned Developer, and owner of all units of the Project hereby adopts the foregoing as the Bylaws of the Council and Co-Owners of Freeman Green this 9th day of April, 1975.
